Toronto's Growth Trajectory

Toronto is the 4th largest city in North America with over three million residents. Ranked at the top when it comes to global competitiveness, innovation and quality of life, few cities in the world can offer such multi-sector strength, depth of talent and a driving economic and financial engine.

Urban City Centre Etobicoke

Etobicoke is an urban centre with excellent access to transit, transportation, retail amenities, an array of dining opportunities as well as arts, culture and entertainment galore! With a premier $75 million investment in a multi-modal transit hub, residents will have an easy time getting around the west end community and the rest of the city and beyond.

Investing now in a growing Etobicoke presents an opportunity of a lifetime to get in now before it's too late!

Schools and Employment

Toronto and the GTA offers a wide range of post-secondary educational facilities includes three universities and five colleges right in the core, that provide training in virtually every discipline and skill. With a large student population, the demand for rental is strong in almost every corner of the city.

Toronto leads the country in number of post-secondary schools and graduates with more than 15,000 medical/ biotech researchers, two top-ranked MBA schools as well as excellent programs in engineering, computer sciences and multi-media. Attrition is high for professionals landing their dream jobs in the city and their desire to find a new home close to where they work makes for a robust real estate market.

Price and Rental Growth

The price per square foot in The Queensway is increasing at a rapid pace, so the time to invest is now! Between 2020 and 2022, the upward trending price went up 33%. According to MLS, the most recent resale 1-bedroom condominium units sold for $559,000 and 2-bedroom units sold for $800,000.

In the rental market, 1-bedroom apartments are leasing for $2,450 per month, while 2-bedroom units are leasing for $3,500 per month. The demand for rental apartments and market condominiums is very strong in The Queensway.
