Excitement is building in the GTA. For over four decades, Mattamy Homes has honed its skills and refined its craft. The company has had the privilege of building homes for over 100,000 families, while quietly growing its world-class condominium portfolio.

Now, Mattamy is expanding its focus and increasing its urban presence. It continues to evolve and grow the high-rise multi-family business while continually improving and applying the same customer-first thinking, passion, and attention to detail our homeowners expect from the Mattamy name.

Mattamy Homes builds responsibly, thoughtfully and innovatively, changing the landscape of condominium buildings as we know. What started as a simple idea to design homes for how people live has made it the largest privately-owned homebuilder in North America, and the company genuinely believes that the best is yet to come.
